

Molly Kreklow

 teamusa.org/usa-volleyball/athletes/molly-kreklow

□

Name: Molly Kreklow

Position: Setter

Sport: Volleyball

Discipline(s): Volleyball

Height: 5-9

Birthplace: St. Louis Park

Hometown: Delano

College: University of Missouri/Accounting

More

Position: Setter

Height: 5-9

Hometown/Residence: Delano, Minnesota/Delano, Minnesota

College/Major/Grad Year: University of Missouri/Accounting/NA

Joined Team: May 2014

Most Notable

- Selected 2015 USA Volleyball Female Indoor Most Improved Player of the Year
- Named Best Setter at 2015 FIVB World Grand Prix
- Started 2014 NORCECA World Championship Qualification Tournament Gold-Medal Match
- Named 2013 AVCA All-America First-Team and SEC Player of the Year as a senior at University of Missouri

Major Competitions

2015 - USA Volleyball Cup vs. China ... FIVB World Grand Prix (Gold)...FIVB World Cup (Bronze)...NORCECA Championship (Gold)>

2014 - NORCECA World Championship Qualification Tournament Pool O (Gold)...Pan American Cup (Silver)

Did You Know

- Set University of Missouri to a school-record .356 team hitting efficiency in 2013
- Started every match during her four-year career at Missouri
- Selected AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year in 2010
- Was coached University of Missouri by uncle and aunt, Wayne and Susan Kreklow
- Played on the U.S. Girls' Youth National Team in 2008
- Father Mike played basketball for two years at University of Wisconsin before transferring to Drake
- Mother Marcia played volleyball at Drake University

Big Blurp

“Definitely, my goal and dream is to play in the Olympics, but to achieve that, I really have to make sure I’m staying in the moment and really focusing on World Cup so that I give myself a better opportunity to improve and get better.” - Molly Kreklow

Related Links

Omaha World-Herald: Former Mizzou Star Keeps Showing 'em After Stepping in for Injured U.S. Setter

Last Updated: Aug. 3, 2015